NAPOLEON'S DREAM .- It is said of Napoleon III. that in the second year of his reign his health began to decline. Duliness, drow-siness and depression troubled him, to which was added the torture of sleeplessness and bad dreams. These afflictions worked upon his mind to an alarming extent. One of his dreams seems to have been prophetic, although its first awful impressions were dis-pelled by the return of health. He related to his Court Physician the vision of a throne, upon which he sat, amidst surroundings of darkened, peals of thunder shook the palace, lightning flashed into the imperial chamber, and the throne crumbled to pieces. There are many similar cases, where the victims of disordered body and mind are rendered indescribably wretched from common causes. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, pains in the side, back and head, nervous debility, and all irregularities, cause untold misery. Sandaline clears the whole body of disease, and restores it to perfect health. We re-member many cases in our midst of old and middle-aged people who formerly wore grey hair, or whose locks were thin and faded, but who now have presentable head pieces, and with no little pride announce to their friends that they haven't a grey hair in their heads. It is a pardonable pride, and the world would be better off if there was more of it, for when the aged make themselves attractive to others they are more certain to win and retain the esteem and respect to which a burthen of well-spent years entitles them. BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR DR-EMBER.-The December number of BAL-LOU'S MAGAZINE is just issued, and makes a very handsome appearance in its new form, new type, rules, head-lines, and engravings. It is the best number that was ever issued, with heavy white paper, wider columns, and all that goes to make up a first-class monthly. The patrons of the magazine will be delighted, and those who have not seen it for some time should procure a copy, and then sub-scribe, or buy it regularly at the news depots. In the December number is a piece of music which is worth more than the price of the magazine, and will be a great favorite with piano-forte players and vocalists. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley street, Boston, Mass., at $1.50 per annum, postpaid, and for sale at all the news depots in the country.

number of THE CATHOLIC WORLD opens with an important article, the title of which will give an indication of its scope and pur-pose: "Leo XIII. on Scholastic Philoso-phy." "Civilization by Force" is another timely and forcible article. "A Novel Defence of Profestantism" is a skillful piece of polemical fence, written in that excellent temper that usually characterizes THE CATH-otic World. "Apprenticeship Schools in France' is an instructive paper on a subject of universal interest. "Pombai" discusses a chapter of bygone history. "The Relation of Church Architecture to the Plastic Arts" gives a sound moral lesson to very many of our modern artists and architects which it would be to the advantage of art and archi-tecture that they should take. "Fanny Kemble's Girlhood" is a very sprightly review of the life of a well-known actress and writer. There is an appreciative review of Aubrey de Vere's latest work, the beautiful "Legend of the Saxon Saints." "The Votive Church of Brou' is a pleasing excursion into the past, while 'Mount Melleray and the Blackwater" makes the past live again in the prese t. Miss O'Moara's new story, "Folette," deepens in interest. "My Christ-"Folette," deepens in interest. "My Christmas at Barnakeery" is the first installment of what promises to be a rollicking story of Irish life. The notices of new publications are numerous and interesting.

Twas in Arabia's sunny land
He wooed his bonny bride;
His umber Ella, rain or shine,
Was ever by his side;
But now he does not Kaffir her:
No love tales does he tell her;
He'd fain Bedouin something else—
Alas! Poor Arab-Ella.

Alas! Poor Arab-Ella.

It is said that in some portions of Arabia an umbrelia constitutes the major part of the wearing apparel of the matives. Things are different here. We want as great a quantity of dry goods piled about, as a possible, especially at this season of the year, and we want those dry goods sighish and serviceable. We want, in a word, just the sort of ready made clothing that is sold by Godfrey Wolff, next door to the postoffice, Altoons. Every man, youth and boy of taste buys from him. His stock comprises all sorts and prices and each garment is warranted to give satisfiction. As to umbrellas, he has an assortment of them, too, to choose from.

FCLL many a flower was born To blush unseen, And many a man takes his corn Behind the screen, Hehind the screen.

That's one sort of corn. Another is the corn produced by Hly-fiting boots or shees, and if there is anything more provoking than the latter, we have not learned its name or nature. This suggests the remark that the boots and shoes, for men and women and boys and girls, sold by S. Blumenthal, 1119 Fleventh avenue. Altoona, make no corns on the feet. This is a fact worthy of remembrance. Then he sells a better article for less money than any other dealer in Western Pennsylvania. That is another fact which should not be vania. That is another fact which should not be forgotten. Give him a trial and be convinced that these statements are strictly true. A large lot of rubbers and overshoes just received. Hun hair was strictly cardinal, Her face was flecked with freekles; But still she secoped George Henry In, Because she had the shekels.

George Henry was one of those young men worth cooping in. He was good-looking and intelligent out the chief reason that the girl with the cardinal hair smiled sweetly on him was because of his ex-quisite tasts in dress. Of course, she could not know it, but it is a fact, theverheless, that he bought his clothing at Jas. J. Marphy's. 100 Clin-ton street, Johnstown, who has a large stock of the same sort of goods on his shelves, warranted to give the fallest satisfaction to the wearer and a sense of pleasure to the eye of the beholder. His juffers will compare favorably with the figures of any other dealer.

No bust, no hell,

That is one way of saying it. Another is this:
Simon & Bendheim, next door to the First National Bank, Altoona, sell ready-made clothing for each only, but they sell at such remarkably low prices that, by comparison, to receive first in another store would be to lose money. Their method of business will allow neither thomselves nor their customers to "bust." A very large stock of fall and winter goods has just been received, and the readers of the Furnman are invited to call and examine the same. They will be pleased with both the garments and the price-tabs affixed to them.

SUMMERILL, Pa., Nov. 8, 1879.

Drag Freeman—In reply to a correspondent from Portage township who signs himsel! "Buckwheat," I hope you will give me access to your valuable columns to contradict untruths presented to the taxpayers of Portage township in regard to the building of a school-house in the aforesaid township, near Itel's. He says it was not built according to the specifications and that the wall was to be of double plank two inches thick. Now, the wall, according to specifications, was to be of two inch plank, doubled, with one inch boards. He says the lower joists were to be 3x12, whereas they were to be 2x12, set on two feet to centre. I had that part of the specifications improved by the Directors to 2x9, set on 16 inches to contre, resting on a summer in the centre of the building. Let the contractor, not saying anything of the additional labor it contractor, but all was for the benefit to the taxpayers.

He says the pipe; joist were reduced proportion find fault with the flooring, which we good to find fault with the flooring, which we good to find fault with the flooring, which we good in the says the proposals of the flooring were not No. I. They were as good No. I as is generally used in building were as good No. I as is generally used in buildings, which my orders will show, and also show that they were ordered from first-class dealers and paid for as first-class.

He says the proposals for putting up the building were according to specifications, but the work was not. Does he mean to say that I was not reponsible.—as though the board of Directors were was indebted to the township ---with my was indebted to the township ---with the good was indebted to the township ---with the good of the contract, which was good and I did not draw one cent from the treasury of said township until the job was inspected by the Directors, five heing present. This body pronounced it a good and complete job according to specifications, and ordered the Secretary to issue an order on the treasury for the amount of $87.45, which was my does not complete the will not be seeded to buy. If your correspondent is backed by the taxpayers why does he not come out as a man and sign his own mans to his correspondence and not the fictious mans of 'Ruckwheatt' Every taxpayer knows there is no one of that name in Portage township. Or does he think that if he crawls over and gets behind a pile of buckwheat he cannot be detected? Respectfully, J. T. Long.

EBENSBURG, Nov. 21, 1879.

EDITOR FREEMAN—The committee appointed by the North and Ebensburg C. M. Church desires through your paper to render their most sincere thanks to their numerous friends in Ebensburg and vicinity for their gifts and aid in carrying on and patronizing their "Festival," and also to Mr. R. H. Todor for the use of his store-room for the same purpose. Trusting that the Father of all good gifts will amply repay you, one and all, for your generosity, I remain your humble servant.

PLUMMER.—Died, Nev. 10, 1879, of typhoid fever, at the residence of John Griffith, Summer-hill, Cambria county. Miss Elizabeth Planmer, The deceased lady during life was noted for her purely Christian charity. Her father died when she was but a child. Reared by a widowed mother she was not ungrateful when age and infirmity rendered assistance to that mother necessary. For years she waited upon her with parental fondness, taking the hardship as a pleasure and the duty of a child in gratitude to a parent. No person was ever neglected in the circle in which she moved. It sickness visited them she was constantly at the bedside to wait upon and soothe the dying pillow. No disease, however contagious would prevent her from waiting on the sufferer until restored to health, or she had closed the eyes in death.

Contracting the disease of which she died at the dying bed of a niece about one month ago, she bore her affliction with great Christian fortitude until the last moment, when she breathed her last as it going to sieep.

the last moment, when she breathed her last as if going to sleep.

On Wednesday, the 12th inst., her remains were interred in the cemetery connected with St. Bartholomew's church, Wilmore, after Requiem Mass, funeral services performed, and a forcible and cloquent sermon delivered by Rev. Father M'Hugh, in which he highly enlogized the deceased for her well-spent life. It can well be said of the deceased, "None knew her but to love her, Or named her but to praise." R. J. P. THE CATHOLIC WORLD .- The December M. J. Dougherty's CIGAR and TOBACCO HOUSE, M. J. Dougherty's CIGAR and TOBACCO HOUSE.

Pittsburgers all amoke, and no class of people in the world knew better what to smoke and where to get it. The city contains quite a number of cigar factories. large and small, and many millions of cigars, tobies, etc., are annually manufactured here. The most enterprising and successful cigar maker, however, of whom the Iron City can boast is M. J. Dougherty, whose factory is located at No. 434, Penn Avenue. Mr. Dougherty's Little Builder cigar has made his name familiar in all the crowded cities of the east, west and south, among the farmers of the prairies, in the tents and around the camp-fires of the soldiers of the frontier, and upon the locks and in the torecastles of ships sailing on every sea. We are going to let the public into the two secrets which have made Mr. Dougherty, in the whole sountry. Mr. Dougherty may not appreciate our abuse of his confidence, but the good of the public is always paramount to every other consideration with us. The first of these secrets is, he makes an article that one tried is always in demand, and the second is, and we request our readers not to forget it, he advertises. He knew his "Little Builder" was the best eigar of its kind in the market and he had the good sense to see that he must let the public know it too. This he has done, and the little cigar store which M. J. Dougherty opened on the 4th of August, 1574 has grown into a flouri-hing factory, doing an immense wholedone, and the little cigar store which M. J. Bough-crity opened on the 4th of August, 1874 has grown into a flourishing factory, doing an immense whole-sale and retail business, sending its productions to all quarters of the globe, and making the above copyright trade mark as well known as the A. B. C. The Little "Builders" are sent all over the world at $2.00 a hundred by mail postage paid. In addi-tion to the "Little Builders," Mr. Dougherty man-factures a large paid. tion to the "Little Builders," Mr. Dougherty manufactures a large variety of cigars of all descriptions and deals in all the most popular domestic brands of chewing and smoking tobacco and cigars. Those who have never tried his "Little Builders" should at once remit $2.00 for a hundred and they will never smoke anything else. Mr. Dougherty is a native of l'ittsburgh, well known and popular with his fellow townsmen, and enjoys the confidence and respect of the entire community.—E. S. Trade Journal.

WE ARE STILL ON DECK!

AND PROPOSE TO REMAIN THERE!

A Perfect Tornado in Low Prices.

To the numerous readers of the Freeman

V.S. BARKER & BROTHER

We have the largest and most complete assortment of BOOTS ever seen in this or any other country town, comprising all qualities from the coarsest to the finest, and at prices which dely competition. We have not sufficient time or space to give a full price list, but append an example or two of our low prices in this department: For $2.50 we sell a man's boot, made from whole stock, with sappting snaw, and fully warranted, which is 60 cents cheuper than a boot of the same quality can be bought from any other dealer in town. Also, a man's calf boot (warranted), with tap sole, either sewed or pegged, for $3.50. Our entire line will be sold at the same low rates, and if customers fall to find our prices far below those of other dealers they will not be asked to buy. A complete stock of boys' and youths' boots at prices equally cheap, besides gum boots at prices a little cheaper than other dealers demand.

In CLOTHING we have special bargains to offer, as we keep a full stock of medium prices garments, as well as samples of finer goods, and will take your order for any kind of a fine suit, which we guarantee to furnish for less money than you can buy the same kind of goods in Altooma or Johnstown. Our $16 Suits are stanning bargains. In OVERCOATS we carry the only complete stock in town, and dely any one to compete with our prices, while in CASSIMERES and CLOTHS we have the most extensive and varied assortment ever exhibited in Ebensburg, and can have suits made to order on short notice. Bon't fall to see our pants' goods before buying.

We keep at all times a full line of UNDERWEAR, from the cheapest to the best, and as an example of our low prices on these goods, and the only one we have room for, we quote good, heavy underthirts at 25 cents goods.

Ladies' Department.

SUPERB STOCK of LADIES' COATS, Which we have in great variety and at all prices from $2.50 up to the highest. We certainly have wonpleased to show you whether you wish our store don't forget to look at the costs, which we will be pleased to show you whether you wish to buy or not.

In BLACK CASHMERES we have a nice line, and are giving great bargains in them as well as other DRESS GOODS or various qualities and textures. Of SHAWLS we shall keep a full assortment, double and single, and of all styles and prices. We also have a neat and complete stock of Ladies' FKNIT JACKETS, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, &c., as well as the best line of WATTERPROOFS for ladies' cloaks and children's wear ever brought to Ebensburg.

MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT. First, we wish to call special attention to our CARPETS. We have completed arrangements with ne of the finest Carpet Houses in New York whereby we are enabled with the aid of a wonderful incention, known as RICHARDSON'S CARPET EXHIBITOR, to show you at your own door, as it were, the entire stock of a New York Wholesale House. We have not room to fully explain all the merits of the "Exhibitor." but will take great pleasure in shewing you the samples in our store, which will give you an opportunity to select any carpet you may desire from a great variety of new and elegant patterns.

We have just received a choice lot of BLANKETS, which we are offering at prices ranging from $2 to $5. We have also added to our stock a handsome line of CLOCKS, and are new prepared to jurnish all styles and qualities, no matter how common or how elaborate, at prices fully 25 per cent. cheaper than regular deciers charge for clocks of the same make and finish.

In PLOOK and TABLE OIL CLOTHS we are offering a unequalied inducements, our prices being not only the lowest but our stock the largest and best in town, comprising all widths and patterns for either floors of tables.

OTHER GOODS IN ENDLESS PROFUSION. We have enumerated only a few of the many articles we have for sale, as it would require many more columns than we would like to pay for to give a full list of all the goods we keep. Suffice it to say that we have the largest stock of merchandise in Ebensburg—Indeed more than double what any other house contains—all of which we bought at the lowest cash prices, while many of the goods were bought early and of course before any advance in price. Of this latter class we note Canton Flannels, of which we purchased largely in July and at prices much lower than they could be bought for now. So too with our monster stock of Boots and Shoes, as well as many other goods which might be mentioned, and which were all bought at the old and more molerate prices of three months ago. This is how it comes to pass that we can sell goods cheaper than other men in the business. We know some dealers will tell you that we are only blowing, but all we ask is a comparison of our prices with theirs. We have soid of GOCERIES cheaper all summer than any other firm in town, and we not only intend to do so in the future, but to keep the largest and best stock of GRECERIES, as well as FLOUR, FEED, GRAIN, SALT, FISH, MEAT, LARD, GLASS of all sizes, NAHS, OHS &c., &c., to be found in Northern Cambria.

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH, or Country Produce at Cash Prices, We buy all kind of grata, beans, onions, ehestnuts, and other produce. Call at our store and will take great pleasure in showing you our goods and informing you of our prices, whether you

The Sun will deal with the events of the 1880 in its own fashion now prests well under the 1880 in its own fashion, now prests well under the secondary of the secondary of the world by everybody. From January I until December II it will be conducted as a newspaper written in the English language and printed for the whole people. As a newspaper, The Sun believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape which will enable its readers to keep well abread of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make up. It now has a direntation very untel larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. Poople of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read The Sun; and as they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, Inc. Sun believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reproduce what is evil, taking eare that its ianguage is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misun. THE SUN will deal with the events of t time to praise what is good and reproble wind is evil, taking eare that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abbors frauds, pithes fools, and deplores nincount possible for the present of the possible the first class, instruct the year 1850 to chastise the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. All bosest its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which The Sun will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close hit eyes to public atfairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it hay in store, or the necessity of resolute rightance on the part of overy citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders give us. The definites and acts of Congress, the externaces of the press, the excetting contests of the Republican and hemogratic parties, now marry equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all hear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago next November, the will of the nation, as expressed at the polis, was
